

Year 9 History – How did Hitler rise to power?

Hitler's rise to power	Knowledge, Skills, Understanding
Higher	Can write about historical events in detail with a sustained focus on explanation and analysis (e.g. rise of Hitler). Can explain and analyse the reasons for Hitler's rise to power (e.g. importance of the Great Depression). Can show sustained application of the nature, origin and purpose framework to analyse and evaluate sources in how effective they are to support a selected argument. Can evaluate why contrasting interpretations of the past have been constructed (e.g. how Hitler came to power). Can evaluate and assess the significance and impact of a historical figure (e.g. Adolf Hitler) Can evaluate connections, contrasts and trends over a long period of time by referring to specific historical events from that period (e.g. change and continuity in the actions of Hitler). Can use historical terms and concepts with a sustained focus upon explanation and evaluation (e.g. rearmament). Can create relevant, highly structured and fully supported accounts using sustained own knowledge using source evidence and contextual knowledge. Can show in writing consistent evidence of independent research and knowledge gained outside the classroom.
Intermediate	Can describe historical events fully and can explain reasons for these events (e.g. Treaty of Versailles). Can explain and begin to evaluate the causes of the Second World War. [e.g. the role of Hitler] Can draw substantiated inferences from different types of historical sources to support an argument with some application of the nature, origin and purpose framework to evaluate sources. Can explain contrasting interpretations of the past using supporting knowledge (e.g. Impact of the US policy of isolationism). Can explain the impact of a historically significant figure (e.g. Adolf Hitler). Can explain and assess connections, contrasts and trends over a period of time (e.g. change and continuity in Hitler's policies). Can consistently use and apply historical terms and concepts (e.g. rearmament, autarky, dictator). Can create relevant, structured and evidentially supported accounts using detailed and accurate knowledge. Can show in writing some evidence of independent research and knowledge gained outside the classroom.
Foundation	Can describe with limited explanation a range of historical events (e.g. rise of Hitler). Can identify and explain why some events are more significant than others. [e.g. the role of the Treaty of Versailles] Can draw descriptive inferences from sources with inferred reference to nature, origin and purpose. Can explain different interpretations with some applied knowledge (e.g. reasons for Hitler's rise to power) Can begin to assess the role of a historically significant figure and reach a judgement Can make connections and draw contrasts, and analyse trends over a period of time and explain reasons behind them (e.g. change and continuity in Hitler's policies). Can use and apply historical terms and concepts (e.g. treaty, Great Depression, isolationism). Can create structured accounts taking into account a range of events and ideas using accurate knowledge.