

Year 9 Art

Hockney Landscapes	Knowledge, Skills, Understanding
Higher	Pupils/I: Explore            consistently mix a range of secondary and tertiary colours and are able to apply this understanding to their own work            consistently identify complimentary and harmonious colour relationships and how to use them            can apply paint with control appropriate to the task            can draw a landscape from observation and from a photograph with accuracy, demonstrating how to use detail, texture and a range of shading techniques to show depth with an understanding of perspective            work creatively with materials, using mark-making to add texture and working independently to produce ambitious outcomes Knowledge            can explain and understand the work of Hockney and related artists, making informed connections to their own work            understand and apply keywords accurately, making connections Evaluate            are able to use colour theory, painting techniques and drawing skills to create a confident and considered final piece            can critically analyse their own work and that of others, identifying strengths and weaknesses to review, modify and refine their work
Intermediate	Pupils/I: Explore            can mix a range of secondary and tertiary colours            can identify and use complimentary and harmonious colours            can apply paint with some control appropriate to the task            can draw a landscape from observation and from a photograph with some accuracy, demonstrating how to use some detail, texture and shading techniques to show depth with an emerging understanding of perspective            can work competently with materials, adding some mark-making, reviewing and refining to adapt their work to carry out their ideas Knowledge            describe and understand the work of Hockney and related artists making relevant connections to their own work            can understand and apply keywords with some accuracy Evaluate            are able to use colour theory, painting techniques and drawing skills to create a competent final piece            can explain their own work and that of others, identifying strengths and weaknesses to review and modify their work
Foundation	Pupils/I: Explore            can mix secondary and tertiary colours            understand basic colour theory with the help of a colour wheel            can apply paint            can draw a landscape from observation and from a photograph with some accuracy and is able to apply some shading to add texture and is beginning to show and understanding of the basic rules of perspective            can use different materials and processes to carry out their ideas Knowledge            describe the work of Hockney and related artists making a response in their own work            can describe the keywords Evaluate            are able to use colour theory, painting techniques and drawing skills to create a final piece            can describe their own work and that of others, identifying strengths and weaknesses to review their work