Dear Parent/Carer

Key Stage 4 English Literature Set Texts

Students in Year 10 are currently beginning their preparation for the GCSE Literature examination. In order to help each student achieve their potential, we recommend they have their own copy of the examination texts that they can bring to lessons. Many students want to highlight key quotations and write reminder notes in the margins to help them achieve a greater level of detail in their studies. As the examination will be 'closed book', it is recommended that students have a copy from which to revise effectively at home.

The school is in a position to obtain these set texts at a slightly discounted price. Whilst there is no obligation for copies to be purchased from the school, we would like to offer you this opportunity. Students may use second-hand copies of the texts if you have them already or can acquire them from a second-hand bookshop, for example. However, the page numbers of different editions of the texts may be different to those stated in lessons or school-produced revision guides.

The set texts on offer for the GCSE Literature examination are as follows:

'An Inspector Calls' by J.B Priestley (Heinemann edition ISBN 978-0435232825) - £8

'Macbeth' by William Shakespeare (Oxford School edition ISBN 978-0198324003) - £5

Please access the school's online system to pay and reserve your copy. We no longer accept cash or cheques. In exceptional circumstances, payment may be made over the phone by card.

Yours faithfully
