25th January 2019

Dear Parent/Carer

Year 11 Maths and English

We have received information regarding a series of revision workshops for GCSE Maths and English which are due to take place between Saturday 19th January and Wednesday 10th April 2019. The revision workshops are being run by the Herts for Learning team, with whom we work closely during the course of the year.

Please find attached the flyer published by Herts for Learning, listing all the relevant dates for Maths and AQA English GCSE, should you wish to book workshops for your son/daughter.

This is an excellent opportunity for some external support to compliment what is being offered at school. Please also be aware that the school's intervention timetable is now up and running and targeted students have been invited to attend by their subject teachers. In addition to this lunchtime and after school programme, we will be offering places for targeted students at school based sessions which will take place on selected Saturdays during March, April and May. There will be a small charge for these sessions.

If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact me or Mr Mitchell (Head of English) or Miss Konarzynska (Head of Maths).

Yours faithfully
